Book Review

Coraline

Coraline is a teeny ,tiny book. It has a cutely drawn cover with large font and illustrations throughout. It is actually a middle grade horror by Neil Gaiman.

Coraline is about a girl named Coraline who gets bored in her new home. So, she decides to explore . Then, finds a secret door and goes into a parallel universe where everything is better: parents who let her do anything, better tasting food, etc. It's more of an adventurous suspension filled book rather than horror to me. It's one of my favorite books. I read it like 5 months ago and finished it in one sitting. it has 210 pages. I think I might re-read it after my exams. It has the same vibe to reading for instance , "The Addams Family" or "Alice in wonderland".

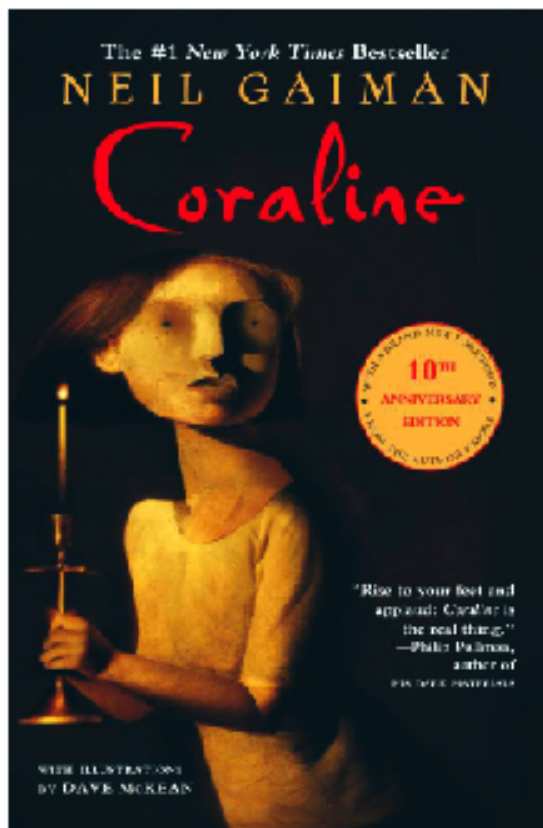

While I was reading, the first page was a little boring but then I later started enjoying it somewhere between page 29-30.

It's like a weirdly funny story. It's a world of imagination that has been sewed up with every possible desire that we all had ever imagined. Coraline is a smart,brave,and kind character, she's very mischievous and loves exploring but she also listens to advice from people.

I love the book and I will recommend it for people who like to read books that are freakily weird, and creepy but not at the same time. Even though it's weird, I think my favorite character is the other mother. Coraline's other mother is an evil shapeshifting entity and the novel's main antagonist. She is sometimes referred to by the trio of lost children she keeps captive as "the beldam," another word for witch. The other mother, as her name suggests, appears at first as a copy of Coraline's real mother, Mrs. Jones.

I think everyone should try it. It's quite a riveting book in my opinion.

"Poetry is the spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings: it takes its origin from emotion recollected in tranquillity." — from "Preface to Lyrical Ballads."

Poetry refines our sensibilities turning us into humane human beings. In this world of speed and velocity, human values are degenerating on all counts. In such a world order, inculcating humane values among students is of utmost importance. To build an equitable social order, there is no denying the significance of instilling moral values among our youngsters and the youth. Keeping this motto in mind, Dept. of English language organizes 'Poetry Recitation Competition' in the month of February.

Students belonging to grades VI, VII and VIII participated in the competition. Students had to go through rigorous screening process to be in the final round. A total of 18 participants were chosen from three classes. Of them, 9 came out in flying colours through scintillating performances in the final. The judges gracing the occasions were:

Celebration of Ekushey and the Unveiling of 'Alok'

'Amar Bhayer Rakte Rangano Ekushey February, Ami Ki Vulete Pari' –How can I forget the bloodbath of the people culminating in 21st February. This timeless song will continue to resonate and reverberate in the hearts of Bangladeshis as long as they live.

In keeping with the rest of the country, CIDER International School commemorates the International Mother Language day in a befitting manner every year. Management of CIDER International School endeavours to inculcate patriotism in students to ensure that they are groomed as patriotic citizens. Bearing this motto in mind, it celebrates national days with due fervour.

The spacious front yard of the school was embellished with due grandeur. A make-shift 'Shaheed Minar' was built at the center of the field with blood-stained Bengali alphabets symbolizing the supreme sacrifice of the masses for the restoration of the mother tongue. At the outset, the reverend Principal, students, teachers, guardians paid glowing tribute to the fond memory to the martyrs by playing floral wreath and bouquet at the base of the Shaheed Minar while singing the song in unison.

Our esteemed Indian Principal whose mother tongue is Hindi startled all and sundry by speaking in authentic Bengali and duly commended by guardians and students alike through a round of applause. The highlight of the occasion was the speech in Japanese by a student of CIDER – Niko Kuwahara – who is Japanese by origin. While Jawad Hossain of grade twelve spoke on behalf of Cambridge Senior Section, Afia Jahin belonging to grade VI spoke on behalf of National Curriculum. Mr. Tarequl Hasan Chowdhury, a Professor of dept. of Economics of Chittagong University delivered his speech on behalf of the guardians emphasizing on the political significance of the Language Movement. In addition to these, founder-chairman of the board of management Dr. prof. Robiul Husain, Special guest Engineer Mr. Prodip Datta, and Chief guest Dr. Anjana Datta lauded the role of CIDER International School in promoting Bengali culture and heritage. Last but not the least, Mrs. Neeti Tripathi, Vice-Principal, Junior School delivered her speech in her mother tongue – Hindi and requested all to promote the culture of speaking and writing correct Bengali.

At the end of the speeches, came a very momentous moment – the unveiling of the Bengali magazine 'Alok'. All the distinguished guests unveiled the magazine amidst thunderous applause of the audience. Alok provides an opportunity to impressionable young minds –the students of CIDER – to bring out their latent talent through their compositions. That the school champions Bengali culture and heritage is amply shown through the publication of Bengali magazine by an English medium school.

At the second segment of the programme, students of all the sections of CIDER performed music, recitation, dance, plays and so on captivating the spectators. The programme was ably conducted by Mr. Biplob Mallick and Mrs. Fahmida Haider Shoma.

A Memorable Trip

It was 10 o'clock when we were in the plane. After much waiting, we finally boarded the plane to Thailand. This was going to be one of the most memorable trips of the year. We, the student of CIDER International School, were going to do Scuba Diving and Snorkeling on this trip. It was the first time the school had taken any class for water sports. The students of grade 4 Science 2 and 4 Science 3 were going together for this trip.

The first day in Thailand went off smoothly. We relaxed on the beach and just generally chilled out. The next day we went for snorkeling on the beach. Though we had an expert along with us, we were still quite worried about doing this sport. We entered the water with a lot of fear but we emerged with the memory of an experience that would be etched in our minds forever. It took a while for us to get used to breathing underwater, but we all finally got the hang of it. We saw many kinds of fish in the water along with different types of corals. Some of us even held a sea cucumber in our bare hands and we almost forgot to breathe.

Scuba Diving was on the agenda for the next day. Our anxiety levels were up again. In snorkeling we were on the surface of the water, but now we were going to reach the sea bed. We were going to the bottom of the sea. That was a whole new ball game altogether. Again breathing was a problem. But the instructors guided us very gently.

Once we were on the sea bed, we took in the sights around us. We looked and marveled at marine life. It was so beautiful and peaceful. Our experience was marvellous. I actually felt like I am an intruder in this silent world. At the end of it, I would like to thank to all of my teachers for taking so much care of us.

This trip left us with an unforgettable memory. We had the time of our lives. I'm certain no other trip will match up to this one ever. This is indeed a memorable trip.

BGS Field Trip-2023

One of the best ways to get students excited about history is to get them out of the classroom to visit a historical site or museum. A student excursion to Swadhinata Complex creates a lifetime of memories. A field trip is one of the best tools that we can use to provide every student with real-world experiences. Whether that's a trip to the local grocery store, a library, a museum, a theater, a community garden or a restaurant; each experience that a student participates in contributes to their understanding of the world. When students leave the classroom, they see the connection between what is happening at school and in the 'real-world'. They begin to see that what they learn within the walls of the classroom can help them solve the problems they see in the world around them and can have a direct impact on who they become as people.

Department of Bangladesh and Global Studies arranged an academic field trip with grade VI-VIII students on 1st February, 2023 at Swadhinota Complex, Bahaddarhat, Chattogram. This complex is composed with different replica of different historical places like Kantojio's temple, BoroKuthi, Ahsan Manjil, Sona Mosque, Lalbagh Fort, National Parliament etc. Students were guided by the teachers in groups who explained the details. During the trip students jotted down some notes in their notebooks. Students gathered information and knew about their past and culture. Teachers arranged a session for taking feedback from students asking some questions on the visited places. Selected students were awarded in the assembly. It can be concluded that the trip was successful and we believe that our objective was achieved.
